VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT
BEIJING ROBOT FUND HAS INVESTED IN MOTOREVO ROBOTICS

This announcement is made by Shoucheng Holdings Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) on a voluntary basis.

The board of directors of the Company is pleased to announce that recently, the Beijing Robot Industry Development Investment Fund (Limited Partnership)* (北京機器人產業發展投資基金(有限合夥)), “Beijing Robot Fund”), managed by a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company under Shoucheng Capital of the Group, has invested in MOTOREVO Robotics CO., LTD.* (無錫泉智博科技有限公司, “MOTOREVO Robotics”). This investment will strongly promote the investee company to further strengthen core technology research and development, advancing iterative upgrades in production and manufacturing, and promoting the application of robotics technologies across a broader range of scenarios.

MOTOREVO Robotics is a leading domestic developer and manufacturer of integrated rotary joints. Its product portfolio covers humanoid robots, robotic dogs, robotic arms, exoskeletons and other application scenarios. MOTOREVO Robotics is committed to research and development and production of next-generation high-torque-density, high-force-control-precision and high-efficiency integrated robot joints. This investment will primarily be used to build a talent pipeline, upgrading production and manufacturing capabilities and establishing a quality management system, further driving innovation in robotics technologies and deepening application-scenario solutions of MOTOREVO Robotics. Through intelligent manufacturing and service upgrades, MOTOREVO Robotics aims to become a core supply-chain anchor enterprise in the robotics era.

Looking ahead, the Group will continue to increase its investment layout in the robot industry unwaveringly, especially through ongoing collaboration with sector-leading enterprises. By providing capital empowerment and industrial synergies to accelerate the commercial closed-loop and technological iterations of the investee companies, and promote the vigorous development of China’s intelligent robotics industry.
